Nashville, TN—November 16, 2011—On Tuesday, November 15, Danielle Peck and an incredible lineup performed for a packed crowd at 3rd and Lindsley to generate funds and awareness and funds for Safe Haven Family Shelter.

Hosted by GAC's own, Nan Kelley, the evening was full of great performances by Danielle Peck, Jamie O'Neal, Burns and Poe, The Roys, Julie Roberts, The North Pole Patrol and Ray Scott. Rob Bironas of the Tennessee Titans was also on hand to show his support for SHFS.

"Danielle is such an amazing advocate for our organization, and is the driving force behind the success of this event, year after year," said Rachael Wilkins, SHFS Director of Development. "She involves some incredibly talented artists along with securing some wonderful online auction items so that there is an opportunity to garner more awareness and funds for homeless families," she continued. "It was very moving to see these artists give so generously of their time to perform and their willingness to support our mission."
